THE PAULIST

1950

PRESENTED BY THE SENIOR CLASS
OF
ST. PAUL HIGH SCHOOL
MARION, INDIANA

Foreword

Herein is recorded the history of our last year at St. Paul's. This year has been one not only of study but of lasting friendship, the memory of which will remain long with us. Over all the year's activities, Mary's guiding love has shone steadily helping us to persevere to the end.

Equipped with the principles of a good Catholic education, we are ready to step forth into the world. We carry with us that noble-mindedness that is Mary's spiritual gift to the world. Undaunted, we move forward in that strength and love—

"For she is the brightness of eternal light; and the unspotted mirror of God's majesty; and the image of His goodness."

To Our Graduates

Fortune now bless you,
Wisdom caress you,
Christ your safe Pilot be.

Life's every hour
Show you His power,
His smile, His charity.

Though brave your eager heart,
Now, at your journey's start,
Seek Him confidingly.

Then will He lead the way,
On through Life's little day,
Safe to eternity.

ST. PAUL'S, OUR PARISH CHURCH

The year 1949 marked note-worthy triple anniversaries of the reigning Vicar of Christ on earth — the fiftieth year of his ordination to the Priesthood; the twentieth anniversary of his elevation to the Cardinalate; and the tenth anniversary of his crowning as Pope.

We, the Senior Class of 1950, dedicate this seventeenth issue of the Paulist to His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, as a token of our great happiness and sincere gratitude for his proclaiming this year another Holy Year in which, by prayer and good works, men may plead with the Heavenly Father for mercy in these troubled times.

Prayer For Priests

We pray thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, to shower Thy most abundant and precious graces on the Priests of Thy Holy Church, who are Thy dearest servants, the dispensers of Thy celestial graces, the fathers of our souls; that they, being more and more intimately united to Thee, may obtain from Thy bounty the grace to confirm our faith, to strengthen our hope, to increase our charity, and to make us detest our sins with more lively sorrow, through our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE

Bishop of Rome and Vicar of Jesus Christ,
Successor of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles,
Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church,
Patriarch of the West, Primate of Italy,
Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Roman Province,
Sovereign of Vatican City,

PIUS XII

The Holy Year Prayer

Almighty and eternal God, with our whole soul we thank Thee for the great gift of the Holy Year.

Heavenly Father, Thou who seest all things, who searchest and dost guide the hearts of men, make them responsive, in this time of grace and salvation, to the voice of thy Son.

May the Holy Year be for all men a year of purification and sanctification; of interior life and reparation, the year of the great return and of the great pardon.

Bestow on those who are suffering persecution for the Faith thy spirit of fortitude, to unite them inseparably with Christ and his Church.

Protect, O Lord, the Vicar of thy Son on earth together with all bishops, priests, Religious and all the Faithful. Vouchsafe that all, both priests and laity, the young, the mature and the old, united intimately in thought and affection, may become as a solid rock, against which the fury of thy enemies will break in vain.

May thy grace enkindle in all men love for the many unfortunate people whom poverty and misery reduce to a condition of life unworthy of human beings.

Arouse in the hearts of those who call Thee Father a hunger and thirst for social justice and for fraternal charity in deeds and in truth.

"Grant, O Lord, peace in our days" — peace to souls, peace to families, peace to our country, peace among nations. May the rainbow of peace cover, with the sweep of its serene light, the land sanctified by the life and passion of thy Divine Son.

God of all consolation! Deep is our misery, grave are our faults, countless our needs. But greater still is our trust in Thee. Conscious of our unworthiness, we lovingly place our lot in thy hands, uniting our weak prayers to the intercession and the merits of the most glorious Virgin Mary and all the saints.

Grant to the sick, resignation and health; to young men, the strength that is born of faith; to young girls, the gift of purity; to fathers, prosperity and holiness for their families; to mothers, success in their mission of rearing their children; to orphans, affectionate protection; to the refugees and prisoners, their fatherland; and to all men thy grace, in preparation and in pledge of the unending happiness of heaven. Amen.

PIUS PP. XII.

Our Holy Father has written this special prayer for the Holy Year and attached both partial and plenary indulgences to it. There is a partial indulgence of seven years for each recitation, and a plenary indulgence if it is said on thirty consecutive days. Thus, the plenary indulgence can be gained as often as twelve times during the year by reciting the prayer on thirty consecutive days each time.

OUR BELOVED BISHOP

HIS EXCELLENCY, THE MOST REVEREND

JOHN G. BENNETT, D.D

Bishop of the Diocese of Lafayette in Indiana

The Holy Year

"A holy silence penetrates the air,
He strikes! And he has broken down the door
As sons of Peter did so oft before,
That all the tired world may enter in,
Sinners and saints, and be absolved from sin."

On June 2, 1948, the feast day of his name saint Eugene, His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, proclaimed that the Holy Year would be celebrated in Rome throughout the twelve months of 1950, and bade the faithful of the world to join together in the Holy City during that time to venerate "the Tombs of the Apostles and the See of Peter."

Since 1475 A.D., every twenty-fifth year has been proclaimed from the Vatican as Holy Year. Since the first Jubilee or Holy Year in 1300 A.D., untold millions of the Faithful have responded to the call of the Holy Fathers and journeyed to the Eternal City. During their quiet prayers at hallowed shrines, they have gained peace of mind and soul, strengthened in spirit and fortified with Divine Grace; these devout people have returned to their homes with a new found peace of heart, contentment of mind and sanctity of soul. Now, more than ever, there is a need for the public prayer and penance required to gain the Jubilee Indulgence. God has been outraged to such an extent that prayer and penance alone can save the world. That was the message given at Fatima by our Blessed Mother indeed, the message of Calvary itself. We must purchase with our prayers and sacrifices the international peace for which we yearn, and that interior peace which alone can draw together all the peoples of the earth.

On Christmas Eve, 1949, the Holy Father opened the Holy Doors at St. Peter's and gloriously inaugurated the Holy Year as the climax to colorful ceremonies, prayers and a papal procession. An extraordinary plenary indulgence is granted by the Pope during the Holy Year to all Catholics throughout the world who visit Rome in order to venerate "the tombs of the Apostles and the See of Peter." His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, has stipulated the requirements for the 1950 Jubilee Indulgence in a special Bull of Notification to the Faithful. It reads as follows:

"During this year of expiation, to all the faithful who duly confess their sins in the Sacrament of Penance, who receive Holy Communion and visit once on that day, or on different days and in the order of their choice, the Basilicas of St. John Lateran, St. Peter's in the Vatican, St. Paul's on the Ostian Way and St. Mary Major's on the Esquiline, and recite in each basilica thrice the "Our

Father", "Hail Mary" and the "Glory be to the Father," and as well, one "Our Father", "Hail Mary", and "Glory be to the Father" for Our intentions, and in addition the Creed. We grant and bestow mercifully in the Lord a full indulgence and pardon of all the punishment due to sin. We also declare that the faithful can gain the Jubilee indulgence either for themselves or for the faithful departed as often as they fulfil the prescribed conditions."

The four principal intentions chosen by the Holy Father for the 1950 Holy Year are:

1. Sanctification of souls through prayer and penance, and unshakable fidelity to Christ and the Church.
2. Action for peace and defense of the Holy places.
3. Defense of the Church against renewed attacks of her enemies and beseeching the true faith for those wandering in error, infidels, and those without God.
4. Actual realization of social justice and works of assistance in favor of the humble and needy.

The purpose of the Holy Year can be summed up in the words: "Holiness through Prayer and Penance". Although the particular act of penance most recommended is a pilgrimage to Rome — a thing not possible for everyone — yet, the rest of the world can share in the spirit of the Holy Year by prayer, mortification, and a more fervent spirit of reparation for their sins and the sins of others.

The Holy Year will close with the solemn traditional ceremonies on Christmas Eve, 1950. The Holy Doors will again be walled up for another twenty-five years —or until the next Holy Year of Jubilee is proclaimed by the reigning Pontiff.

Donald Clapp, '50.

May peace, the object of Our ardent yearning, return at long last to the hearts of all; to families, to individual countries and to the community of nations; may "those who suffer persecution for justice's sake" (Matt. V. 10) be blessed with that dauntless fortitude which adorned the Church with the blood of martyrs from the very beginning; may refugees, prisoners, homeless exiles be enabled as soon as possible to find their way back to the fatherland they cherish; and may the consolations of divine grace lighten the pain and anguish of those who are suffering.

Pope Pius XII.

THE VERY REV. MONSIGNOR JOHN A. MCCARTHY
OUR KIND PASTOR, TEACHER
FRIEND, AND FATHER

OUR ASSISTANT PASTOR
REV. FREDERICK J. O'BRIEN
C.P.P.S.

TO THE GRADUATES OF NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY

Each year, like a master piece of painting, is composed of light areas and dark shadows. This year of our Lord, the year nineteen hundred and fifty, is no exception. Just what the greatest joys and the greatest sorrows of this year were will have to be determined by future generations. We, who are living in it, are too close to it to have the proper perspective for judging. Yet the Catholic graduate will remember, as patches of sunshine on the portrait of 1950, this Holy Year of Jubilee and his graduation

Graduation or, more properly, Commencement, means the completion of one phase of life and the beginning of another. The phase just completed was the formative period, — the period in which the student was led through the years of childhood and adolescence into the beginnings of young manhood and womanhood. At his side stood two powerful guides — at the one side stood father and mother, at the other stood the Church and school. With labor and love these two forces for good cooperated to bring the student to the day of his high school graduation. These two influences do not abandon their charge at this point in his life. Yet, there necessarily arises a new relationship. It is no longer a child whom they guide, but an adult. A child is led, while the adult must lead

The new phase of life in which the graduate finds himself is an adult stage. Heretofore his life has been regulated. There has been a careful balancing of time between work and play, between prayer and study. Now the young person who steps across the threshold of the school into the world must establish his own balancing of time. His judgment in this matter will determine the success or failure of his future.

Each individual has burning within him an intense desire to be successful. No one wants to be a failure. Yet, success rarely comes without a proportionate effort. The graduate of a Catholic high school knows very well, in an elementary form at least, the efforts he must put forth to be successful. He knows that success or failure will come in proportion to his efforts. A careful selection of a career and the proper attention to it will make more sure his financial success. A solicitude for ones soul and the observance of the Commandments of God and His Church will insure his spiritual success. The graduate knows this. It is now up to him to set his foot upon the right path and follow it manfully. How wonderful it is to see our Catholic young people cleave faithfully to the principles which their parents and teachers worked to instil in them. How tragic it is to see others throw these teachings to the winds and embark upon a life that violates everything that they were taught to hold sacred. These leave a trail of broken hearts and ultimately break their own.

In the dim distant future, the graduate of 1950 often may look back to this year. He will remember the joys and festivities which surrounded his graduation. He may also remember that it was the Holy Year, the year designated by Pope Pius XII as "the year of the great return and the great pardon". How happy the graduate of 1950 will be if he can look back through the years with a clear conscience and know he has directed his spiritual and mental powers to the glory of God and the salvation of his soul. How great will be the peace of soul of the one who has accepted the graces, indulgences, and pardons of the Holy Year, and has used them to begin a truly Catholic adult life. A life in which one devotes himself with all his energies to the task of being an obedient servant of God and a loyal citizen of his country, is the life for which the graduate has been prepared.

When you, dear Graduates of 1950, come to the end of your life, which will be your Eternal Commencement, may it be said of you as it was of Our Divine Savior, our friend and exemplar: "He hath done all things well". The pastors and the faculty of your Alma Mater wish you every success in life. They accompany you on your journey of life with their prayers. They know that in your lives there will be sunshine and shadows. May the sunshine warm and gladden your hearts. May the shadows cause you to turn to Him who can make all sorrow change into joy.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

FREDERICK J. O'BRIEN, C.P.P.S., Faculty Advisor

SENIORS

Today, as never before, there is a most urgent need that all things be refashioned in the truth and power of the Gospel. Human efforts, even when they are laudable and not inspired by motives that are fallacious, are unequal to this great undertaking; it is august religion, alone, aided by divine grace, that can prove equal to the greatness of the task, and, with the active cooperation of all, bring it to a happy conclusion.

In Retrospect

In the history of St. Paul's High School, September 6, 1946 is remembered as an important and eventful day, for it marks the beginning of the High School career of the present Senior Class. We were lively little Freshmen, unaccustomed to the superior ways of our upper classmen, and the unfamiliar methods of High School instructions. We were rather frightened, and experienced a taste of inferior complex. Algebra and Latin proved a stumbling block to most of us but we bore up bravely though sometimes with sighs and groans. The year passed all too quickly and before we realized it, summer was calling us so we bade farewell to our Freshman year.

In September 1947, we returned to St. Paul's as Sophomores, happy to meet old friends as well as new ones. We were slightly less in number, but full of pep, and eager to begin a prosperous year. Second year Latin and Geometry kept us more than busy, but by patience and perseverance we managed them at last. There was sorrow when Rev. Father Krapf, who had been our friend and instructor in religion, left us on account of ill health. There was joy when his successor, Rev. Father O'Brien, cheerfully assumed his duties. We took great interest in athletics and other activities, and our Sophomore year came to a happy close.

In September, 1948, we began our Junior year at St. Paul's. We had become more serious now and realized that we were upperclassmen and were expected to be leaders. We began our year's activities by electing class officers with the result that Miguel Guerrero became our President. Our Christmas and June issues of the "Spotlite" were pronounced "very fine." Our Junior-Senior "Prom" was the big event of the year. It took place on May 29 at the Spencer Hotel. Patricia Bott of the Senior Class, was chosen Prom Queen and her attendants were Delores Sharon and Barbara Monzon. Time sped on and almost before we were aware of it, our Junior year had come to an end.

In September, 1949, we, eighteen in all, entered our last year in St. Paul's. The undergraduates were surprised at the dignity and all-important air we assumed. We felt rather big as there were no upper classmen over us. We took up the responsibility of securing funds for our school annual, the Paulist. The Christmas card campaign proved a great success as all the school generously gave a helping hand. This last year has been the busiest, best, and most interesting of all. Soon it will be over and then our days at St. Paul's are ended. However, the memory of them will long remain. We shall always remember the true and lofty aims that were born in us in our work here, and we shall make our lives such as will bring pride to our beloved Alma Mater. "We will always remain Boosters."

Betty Munday

MAY QUEEN — BETTY MUNDAY

We have centered Marv in all our school activities — academic, social, and athletic. Being our Mother, Marv has poured forth from her stainless hands the joy-filled blessings and favors we so earnestly sought. Her motherly interest has secured the solution of troublesome problems which seemed so important in our everyday lives.

In deepest gratitude for a Mother's care, we give you, Marv, our memories, our dreams for future years, and pray always, "Most gracious advocate, turn thine eyes towards us."

Class Will

We, the Class of '50, being in full possession of a crammed mind, well trained memory, and human understanding, do make and publish this our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills, letters or promises made by us at any time heretofore. As to such estate as it has pleased the Fates and our own strong hands and brains to win for us, we do dispose of the same as follows:

We bequeath:

1. To our Pastor, Msgr. McCarthy, our everlasting appreciation and loyalty, together with our deepest reverence and heartiest gratitude for the fatherly interest he has shown us.
 2. To our friend and counsellor, Rev. Father O'Brien, in return for his spiritual guidance and help, a pledge of our sincere gratitude and thanks.
 3. To the Sisters' memories of the past, our gratitude for their patience with us, for their interest and self-sacrificing efforts in all our undertakings.
 4. To St. Paul's High, "Thanks for the Memory" of happy care free hours spent in learning as well as enjoying ourselves to the fullest.
 5. To the Juniors, Sophs and Freshies, our school spirit — may they never lose it.
 6. To the Juniors, the glorious title "Seniors", with one request — that they carry it with great dignity.
- Besides these gifts, we leave, of our own free will, our blessing and a pledge of friendship from henceforth.

Individual Bequeaths:

1. Marikay Pain, bequeath my position as cheer leader to Thalia Britt.
1. James Mack, leave my sense of humor to Joe Fowler.
1. Mary Alice Carrico, will my preference for matrimony to that of a career to Patty Hart.
1. Rodney Clouse, will my job of hanging out the flag to Tom Bir.
1. Patricia Carter, will my business ability and trustworthiness to Joan Stillwell.
1. Lenora Finley, give my winning smile and sunny disposition to Letty Kay Bosler.
1. Rosemary Oldfield, bequeath my position as Librarian to Joan Pickens.
1. Fred Warner, will my love of studies to Duke Feltes.
1. Marie Gilvin, will my short hair and curley bangs to Barbara Coan.

- I, Russell Burton, leave my athletic ability to Bob Huneck.
- I, Barbara Monzon, will my long black hair to Mary Guerrero.
- I, Donald Clapp, will the honorable office of "Editor of the Paulist" to Joe Hipkind.
- I, Patricia Myers, will my ability to get along with Father O'Brien to my brother R. J.
- I, James Marshall, will my friendliness and retiring disposition to Tom Bu
- I, Marorie Haley, will my beautiful voice and love for singing to Ann Marie Wakefield.
- I, Miguel Guerrero, bequeath my position as class President, and my popularity to Thalia Britt.
- I, Dolores Feighner, resign my knack of accomplishing great things, when I set my mind to it, to Joan Eckelbarger.

To all the high school, we leave the important duty of keeping our memory fresh.

To our beloved "Alma Mater", our best wishes for continued success.

In witness whereof we, the Class of 1950, have hereby set our hands and seal, this ninth day of June, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred fifty.

"A Prophetic Dream"

It was twenty years ago, on June 2, 1950, that I and seventeen classmates graduated from St. Paul's High School in Marion, Indiana. Now, as I sit in my beautiful garden, midst fragrant flowers and green shrubbery, enjoying memories of happy school days, I find myself becoming a little drowsy. It is that bewitching hour of evening, an ideal time for reverie. Suddenly I hear a voice coming from somewhere near. On looking about, I notice a little bird perched on a branch of a tree opposite me. Gazing in surprise at the pretty creature, I hear it say, "Do not be alarmed — I am Bob-o-link. I know you are thinking of your classmates of old and are wondering what has befallen each of them. Listen closely and I shall give you in account of them":

Patricia Carter has become a successful milliner in New York. She astonishes the world by her unique headgears which demand fabulous prices.

Russell Burton has become a famous athlete and is now a football coach at Notre Dame, following the Knute Rockne method.

Mary Alice Carrico has long since been married. She and Ralph are happy with their family, living on a large ranch in Texas.

Donald Clapp, who was always ready for laughs and fun, was discovered one day by a producer, and is now starring in the comedy, "Hambone."

Betty Munday, after serving four terms as the White House Cook, and becoming acquainted with all state secrets, is aspiring to become the President of the United States.

Rodney Clouse has made a fortune in California gathering snails and selling them to Chinese restaurants.

Marie Gilvin has been a nurse for many years and is now Superintendent of Nurses at the National Veterans' Hospital in Washington, D. C.

James Marshall emigrated to Alaska where he discovered a new species of icebergs warranted to keep their bulk and weight in torrid zones.

Barbara Monzon is a Professor of Languages in the University of Paris. The boys think one tongue is enough for any woman, but after all, she is the teacher.

James Mack became the proprietor of a large moving picture house in Los Angeles, in which he poses for his own pictures.

Delores Feighner's voice can be heard amidst the buzzing of the stock tickers and noises of Wall Street saying that she is now a woman capitalist.

Fred Warner, who was always fond of chewing gum, has become a successful manager of one of the largest chewing gum factories in the world.

Marikay Pain has devoted many years to the study of music. She is now touring the country giving concerts to large and appreciative audiences.

Patricia Myers has become a noted stenographer. She is busy taking shorthand notes at the Supreme Court at Washington on week days, thus "cashing in" on her hard work during her school life.

Rosemary Oldfield is happy as a traveling saleswoman, selling rouge, lipstick and other waterproof paints of the latest fashion.

Miguel Guerrero was a renowned voice master for many years. He is now taking parts in Grand Operas at the Metropolitan Opera House in New York.

Marjorie Haley has devoted her attention to the manufacture of cosmetics, and after becoming proficient in the French language, has opened a beauty parlor in Paris.

Last but not least, you, Lenora, whose well-known literary talent has sent you to the top of the ladder of fame, have accepted a position as advertising writer for Hill's Department Store and acquire an enormous salary, since their financial success is entirely dependent on your talent.

And now, you have learned of your classmates and are assured that each has met with success.

The Bob-o-link ceases speaking. While waiting for him to continue, I hear my name called — I give a sudden start and open my eyes. Yes, my mother's calling awakened me and my dream vanished into thin air.

The Trojans - In Victory and Defeat

COACH EVERETT CHAPMAN

The St. Paul Trojans opened their 1949-50 season by meeting the Wayne Township Indians, and were downed 38-31 in a close battle. Next they encountered Yorktown, where they met defeat again by a score of 36-22. The Sweetser Braves came to town and gave the Trojans their third defeat of the season, with a score of 31-28.

The Trojans traveled to Roll where they met the Red Rollers. At this time they were handed their biggest defeat of the season thus far. The Red Rollers combined their fast break and their accurate shooting to defeat the Trojans 40-32.

After suffering four defeats in a row, the Trojans changed their luck to win four consecutive games, three of which were conference games.

The Trojans defeated the Jefferson Yeomen by a large score of 52-26. After this win, they took on the Union Township five, defeating them by a score of 40-37. The Trojans pulled their biggest upset of the season by nosing out the Van Buren Aces 42-41. Soon after winning these three games, the Trojans went on another road trip where they encountered the Sweetser Braves, beating them by a narrow score of 29-27, making this their fourth victory in a row.

De Soto snapped the Trojan's winning streak by defeating them 71-48. In their next outing the Trojans dropped a 52-41 decision to the strong Eaton Norsemen.

The Trojans then suffered a heartbreaker, losing to St. Mary's of Anderson, 16-15. Danny St. Clair of St. Mary's sank a free-throw with 58 seconds to go. Anderson then froze the ball to obtain victory.

Next, the team ventured to Warren, where the Jackson Center Jaguars handed the Trojans their eighth defeat in twelve starts. The powerful Wells County squad controlled the game through-out and defeated the Trojans 57-31. The Trojans broke a four-game losing streak by dealing Union Township a 43-32 set-back.

Fairmount's sharpshooting Quakers wrecked the Trojans' hopes for county conference championship by defeating them 50-34.

Next, the St. Paul Trojans rallied a 29-28 decision over the Swayzee Speedkings. They wound up their season by handing the Jefferson Township five a defeat of 18-39.

The Trojans drew the Mississinewa Indians in the sectional tourney and were downed 46-27.

St. Paul will lose four of the players this year as Russell Burton, Miguel Guerrero, Rodney Clouse and Fred Warner will graduate in June. These boys were all good players and will be greatly missed next year. Rodney Clouse.

ST. PAUL'S RESERVES

RUSSELL BURTON

Russell has played his last year for the Trojans. He worked one side of the double pivot combination. He will be missed greatly by next year's squad

MIGUEL GUERRERO

Miguel is playing his last year with the Trojans. "Mitch", as he is known by his team mates, collects most of his points on fast break. It will be hard to replace him next year

FRED WARNER

Fred is a senior and playing his last year with the Trojans. He has completed two years with the Varsity. Fred is one of the smallest and fastest players on the team. His spot will be hard to replace

RODNEY CLOUSE

Rodney completed his final season by playing on the Varsity. We are sorry he will not be with us next season as he is graduating

BOB HUNICK

Bob has completed his first year on the starting five and proved himself to be a good player. "Good luck to you, Bob, in the next Basketball season".

TOM BIR

Tom is a junior and playing his second year on the Varsity. He has another year to play with the Trojans and he will certainly prove his worth

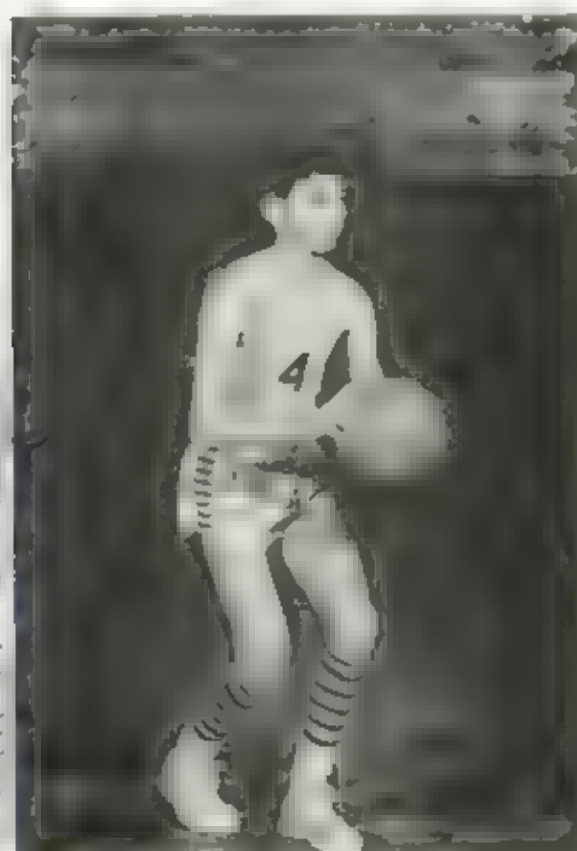

JOE FOWLER

Junior guard. Experience, good ball handling, and height have been factors in Joe's success in the games. He has another year with the Trojans and should be a leader next year.

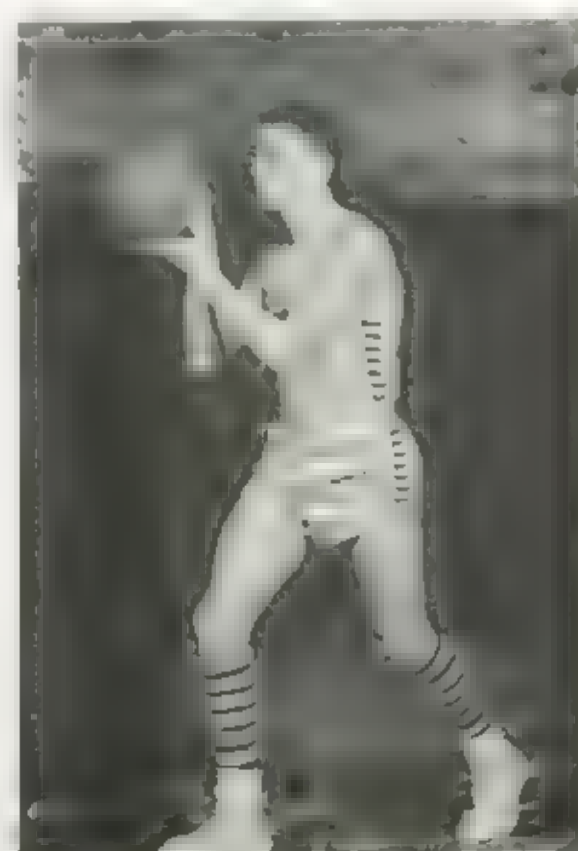

PAUL "CAPPY" ORR

Cappy is another sophomore playing his first year with the Varsity. His two-hand set shots are a great asset to the team's scoring. He should develop into one of the Trojans' leading scorers within the next two years.

PAUL DWYER

Paul, better known as P. D., is a sophomore, and playing his first year with the Varsity. He is sure to develop into a promising player in years to come due to his speed and accurate shooting.

DON MONKS

Don played his first year on the Varsity. He has proven to be a good substitute because of his height. He has two more years at St. Paul's and should develop into a great player.

CITY CHAMPS

St. Paul's won the City Freshmen League for the first time in the school's history. The season record was four wins as against one defeat.

Among the "Who's Who" of St. Paul's High, Mr. Everett Chapman stands out prominently. All the teachers and students know that much of the credit won by our athletes is due to Mr. Chapman's zealous and whole-hearted work. A good coach is a treasure and we hope that Mr. Chapman will continue for many years to train the boys in basketball and gym work.

The best thing to give your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father, deference; to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity.

And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profiteth me nothing - St. Paul

OUR ALMA MATER

We love our Alma Mater whose cherished aim is to educate the "whole man", the heart as well as the mind. She considers Religion the central core, around which all other subjects in the school curriculum revolve. May God protect her and bless those that work within her sheltering walls

OUR SPIRITUAL RETREAT

The students of St. Paul's High School were privileged to have a three day retreat on March 15, 16, and 17. It was conducted by the noted missionary, Reverend Daniel D. McCarthy, C.S.S.R., superior at Redemptorist Mission House, Lebanon, Indiana.

A retreat is a privilege because it is a season of grace when the treasury of heaven is thrown open to all who participate. It offers a wonderful opportunity for learning to know oneself better by self-examination, and for gaining a clearer knowledge of the truths of the Catholic Church.

In his opening talk, Father McCarthy explained the meaning and purpose of the retreat and the benefits derived from making it. He said that the object of the retreat was the turning of the mind to God's love and to heaven, and away from the things of time.

In another conference, the missionary pointed out and explained the necessary elements for a happy and successful life, namely — generosity or Christian charity, a sense of humor, and courage or Christian fortitude.

A talk on vocations was given in which Reverend Father brought out the qualifications necessary for each state of life. The concluding lecture was on devotion to Mary; the students were reminded to pray to the Mother of God often, especially by saying the Rosary every day.

The retreat closed with a Holy Hour, Papal Benediction, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This retreat and the spiritual benefits derived from it will long be remembered by the students.

As we, the Seniors of 1950, take our departure from dear St. Paul's, we wish to leave a reminder of the pleasures, activities, and serious moments of our Senior Year. We hope the Paulist will be worth the co-operation of the student body and faculty. With the sincere best wishes of every Senior, we present this 1950 Yearbook to be read, enjoyed, and cherished in the years to come.
